

A Day In The Life Of An Access Monitor

Doug & Cathy Pansch

After being trained, volunteers are assigned a mutually workable time slot to be at the Public Access.

They have a checklist which they review with boat owners.

They see friends and neighbors, meet visitors, get really cool vests....and protect Bay Lake.

To join this fun loving and community minded group contact:

*Phil & Jane Rollins 678-2898
philfishing@gmail.com*

Or, make a commitment to enroll for the Access Monitor Training Session early next summer.